The Woodmen's dance will be held in the Howland hall Saturday night. Admission, 50c, ladies 10c. John Rowley, consul, A. J. Lorange, clerk.

Mrs. Steven Holcombe and P. F. Holcombe returned to their home in Glen Falls, N. Y., Thursday, after passing several days with relatives in this city.

The Milne brothers went to Burlington this morning, where they have an engagement to do their singing and dancing act for two days at the Strong theatre.

The last school baseball game of the season is scheduled to take place at intensity park this afternoon at four o'clock, when Spaulding high and Montpelier high are to play off a postponed game.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Forsythe and Mrs. James Campbell of Spaulding street left this morning for Montreal, where they will take passage for Scotland, to be gone until next fall. Mr. and Mrs. Forsythe expect to travel through Scotland and England and on the continent before they return.

The Milford, N. H., paper has this to say of Mr. Wilson, the soloist in the concert to be given under the auspices of the Barre Civic federation by the choral union: "Mr. Wilson sang his solos with good interpretation. He has a rich bass voice, well trained and under most excellent control." The concert will be given here Wednesday, June 15.

The graduation exercises of Spaulding high school will be held in the opera house this evening and will be started at 7:30 o'clock. This hour is earlier than usual, and the people who intend to be present should bear this in mind and not occasion confusion by entering the hall late. After the exercises, there will be the closing reception at the high school building.

The Italian Athletics and Norwich university will line up at intensity park tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. The university aggregation is one of the few teams which has defeated the locals this season and, as the latter are anating for revenge, an exciting game may be expected. "Dope" Hunt of the university of Vermont and Emmott will be opposed by Reid and Murray. The slow cutters' hand will be in attendance and will furnish music throughout the game.

Kenneth Lawson was arraigned in city court this morning on the charge of petty larceny. He pleaded not guilty to the charge, and the case was continued until tomorrow morning for a hearing. The boy is alleged to have stolen a clock belonging to C. W. Kemp. He was arrested last night on a warrant by Officer Gamble. Charles Henry Chamberlain, arrested last night by Officer Gamble, pleaded guilty this morning to a subsequent offense of intoxication and was fined $15, with costs of $5.89, which he thought he would be able to pay.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the board of trade two weeks ago, the need of improved service and equipment on the Barre & Montpelier street railway was discussed, but no action was taken. At last evening's regular meeting of the board of directors, Frank M. Curry and Edgar H. Dewitt, officials of the street railway company, were present and made statements regarding the condition of the road and its equipment. They promised some minor improvements in service, but no statement could be secured from them when new and better cars might be expected, though they admitted the need of them.

WILKESDALE, 2.22 1/4

WILKESDALE is a brown stallion, six (6) years old, of Morgan build, very stylish, and weighs about 1,050 pounds. He has taken first premium everywhere shown, including first premium at the Dominion exhibition, Sherbrooke, P. Q., as a three-year-old. Wilkesdale was brought from Lexington, Ky., to the Smith Stock Farm by Walter Cox, when two years old. Wilkesdale is by Ondale, 2:23 1/4, by Onward, by George Wilkes; his sire has about 16 in the list, and all trotters. Wilkesdale's dam is Fanny Black, 2:27; Fanny Black is now a dam of four in the list; also the dam of a two-year-old that has worked last season in 2:27 1/4. Second dam by Betterton, by George Wilkes. Wilkesdale is the fastest trotting stallion ever owned and trained in Barre, when he received his record of 2:22 1/4.

Wilkesdale's colts are all trotters, of good size, and stylish. Wilkesdale stands for service at the

and all mares left at our farm will receive the best of attention.

The funeral of Nathaniel Whittier, whose death occurred in Waterbury on Wednesday night, will be held in the Church of the Good Shepherd to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. W. J. M. Beattie, officiating. The burial will be in the Elmwood cemetery.

Among the soloists at the concert to be given by the Barre choral union in the opera house Wednesday evening, June 15, is Mr. Wilson, of whom the Boston Advertiser has the following to say: "Mr. Wilson sang the difficult role of 'Hawatha's Farewell' with commendable vocal skill. His intonations were mellow and carried most excellently without apparent exertion on the part of the singer. His nuances were admirably preserved." The concert here is under the auspices of the Civic federation.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the board of trade two weeks ago, the need of improved service and equipment on the Barre & Montpelier street railway was discussed, but no action was taken. At last evening's regular meeting of the board of directors, Frank M. Curry and Edgar H.
